Summary

Long ago, in the world of Kumandra, humans and dragons lived together in harmony. However, when sinister monsters and human nature threaten the land, Raya must learn to love her enemies and work together to save their people.

Bottom Line

God made me to love my neighbors.

Bible Verse

I will praise you because I have been remarkably and wondrously made.
-PSALM 139:14a

Discussion

- * Is it hard for you to trust others?
- * What does it mean to love one another the way Jesus loved us?
- * What can you do to love others more like Jesus?

Prayer

God help us to love others the same way you love us. It can be hard to love our enemies, but we pray that we change our hearts and remind us of the ways you love us, Amen.
